TO: County Council

FROM: Christine Wellons, Chief Legislative Attorney

SUBJECT: Bill 22-25, Labor Peace Agreements – Hotel Development Projects

PURPOSE: Final action – roll call vote expected

ADDENDUM

Councilmember Sayles intends to propose an amendment (enclosed at ©A1) to Bill 22-25 regarding the Chief Administrative Officer's (CAO) determinations about the County's proprietary interests in hotel projects.

Under the amendment, a determination made by the CAO about whether the County has a proprietary interest in a hotel project would be required to be in writing. The written determination would indicate the reasons for the determination. A copy of the written determination would be provided to the Council and to each employer on the project.

Council Bill 22-25, Labor Peace Agreements – Hotel Development Projects

Amendment by Councilmember Sayles

After line 136, insert the following:

(4) Procedural requirements. Each determination by the Chief Administrative Officer under this subsection must be contained in a written document that:

(A) specifies the reasons for the determination; and

(B) is provided to the Council and to each employer at the hotel project.
