SUBJECT: Resolution in support of Montgomery County's Transgender Community

Background

1. Montgomery County Council is committed to supporting civil rights and the Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer, Intersex, Asexual + (LGBTQIA+) community, passing a 2016 resolution condemning anti-transgender laws, the 2020 LGBTQ Bill of Rights, and the 2022 law requiring gender-inclusive restrooms.
2. The 2015 US Trans Survey estimated that as many as 40% of transgender individuals had attempted suicide at least once, about nine times the national average.
3. Since 2013, there have been at least 318 transgender, non-binary, and gender non-conforming individuals killed in violent attacks nationwide. In the last ten years, at least 17 individuals in Maryland were killed, including Keyonna Blakeney (Rockville, 2016) and Zella Ziona (Gaithersburg, 2015).
4. Recently, hate groups nationwide have targeted transgender, nonbinary, and gender non-conforming people as well as events and organizations centering or supporting those communities. In Montgomery County, hate groups have attempted to disrupt Drag Story Hour at Brookside Gardens, Loyalty Bookstores, and more. Bells Mill Elementary School shifted an in-person PTA meeting to virtual after receiving threats following a social media post of a teacher reading a book about a transgender child.
5. Anti-transgender resolutions have been enacted in several states, including Louisiana, Oklahoma, Alabama, Florida, Texas, South Carolina, Indiana, Tennessee, Georgia, Kentucky, Utah, Iowa, and South Dakota.
6. Anti-trans laws impact entire communities, particularly communities of color, by contributing to hatred and unsafe environments. Research shows that laws that target transgender, nonbinary, and gender non-conforming individuals increase depression, anxiety, and suicidal ideation within the community.
